WILL TAKE PORTO RICO

American Warships to Head Off the Spanish Fleet Within Two Days.

Sampson at Sea With Secret Orders==Stars and Stripes Float Over Cuba==Troops Landed at Mariel==Spaniards Put to Flight.

Washington, May 5.—There were many conferences between President McKinley and the senators and representatives today. The first comer was Senator Burrows, of Michigan. As he left, he said: "Everything is moving along smoothly and well. What we want now is Porto Rico. We ought to have that tomorrow." "Will it be as soon as that, Senator?" "Yes," was the response, "probably in a day or two."

New York, May 5.—A Key West special says: The tug Leyden has returned, having landed two parties on Cuban soil. One consisted of the commission from Washington to General Gomez, which debarked on the north shore in Santa Clara province, which immediately started for the interior. The other party, under the Cuban general, Acosta, landed near Mariel, north of Havana. Before it went ashore the cruiser Wilmington shelled the Spanish cavalry in the vicinity. Then Acosta's men landed, charged and routed the Spaniards, who retreated, carrying off sixty wounded, leaving sixteen dead in the field. The American and Cuban colors were hoisted side by side on Cuban soil.

being impressed on the leaders in the

The queen is calm, but in a state of high tension. She was prepared, she said, since Spain was at war, with a strong power, for reverses and catastrophe, but as she tried to be and believed she was in close touch with the nation,
she would be found equal to every duty.
Spanish patriotism would support her,
she said. To care for the Spanish honor would be one of her guiding principles.

Up in Arms.

LONDON, May 4.—The Daily Mail's Madrid special says: In the province of Valencia, the hotbed of the Carlists, there has been tumultuous demonstrations and it is reported blood has been shed. At Talvera and other towns there have been serious disturbances. In consequence the raiso of wheat and flour at Gijon, a seaport, the fishermen led a riot against the dearth of provisions. Several warehouses and shops were pillaged. Troops were called to restore order.

OREGON MAY HAVE A FIGHT.

Captain in Command Confident of Coming Through Safely.

RIO JANEIRO, May 5.—The United States battleship Oregon and the gunboat Marietta, together with the Buffalo, formerly the Nitroheroy, which was purchased from Brazil, sailed on time. The Spanish gunboat Temerario, which, it is said, has been lurking about in an attempt to take the American vessels, is reported laid up for repairs to her boilers at La Plata, a thousand miles south of here.
It is hinted here that the commander of the Oregon has his plans well laid to perpetrate a trick upon the Spanish fleet should an attempt be made to intercept him. It was reported that the three vessels would in all probability be soon joined by other fighting ships of the American navy, and the inference is drawn that the ships which will arrive will be from the flying squadron now under command of Commodore Schley. There appeared to be no apprehension as to the safety of the American vessels, and the commander had no fear but that he would take the Oregon and the two other ships safely through to their destination, which, it is given out here, is Key West.

Besides the damage to the boilers of the Temerario, it is reported that her crew has deserted, and that she is utterly helpless to inflict any damage upon the American vessels, even if she could overtake them, which is now impossible.

SPAIN TOO WANTS NEWS.

Details of the Manila Battle Earnestly Desired.

MADRID, May 5.—There is growing impatience among all classes here for news from the Philippine Islands and Cuba. As regards the former, no good news is expected, but everybody desires to know the worst. There have been many distressing incidents at the ministries of war and marine, where the parents, wives or children of men serving abroad have flocked with anxious faces seeking for information. The only reply they receive is that the cable is cut, and that it is impossible, therefore, to give them any news.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Barnes will entertain the Supper club at their home on

HOW THEY DO TALK!

The "Nation of Nobodies" Seems to Be Somebody After All==Selah!

Paris, May 5.—It is reported that negotiations are pending between the United States and Great Britain whereby the latter will support the former if the other powers intervene in favor of Spain. The United States, it is added, has promised in return to capture the Canary Islands and cede them to Great Britain.

SPANISH REASON FOR RIOTS

Speculators Take Advantage of the War to Get Rich Quickly.

MADRID, May 5.—A bill has been introduced in the Cortex to prohibit the exportation of corn, flour, rye, maize, potatoes and fruits. A suppressing duty on the importation of those articles is intended to checkmate the speculators, who, owing to the enormous premium on exchange, now 111 per cent, commenced immense exportations of produce against which they negotiated bills in the foreign markets. These exports created a scarcity of food, which is largely responsible for the rioting throughout Spain.

ARE WE TO GO TO SPAIN?

War Preparations Point That Way --It May Be a Chase.

WASHINGTON, May 5.—The government continues to get ready for war.
Two dry docks, each of 8500 tons, have been purchased. They will take all of the smaller vessels, the mosquito fleet, torpedo boats, gunboats and cruisers as large as the Cincinnati.

The latest thing in the way of preparation is the assembling of a fleet of colliers.
This looks as if a trip by the Americans to the other side of the ocean might be in contemplation. Several colliers have been acquired and 10 more are in sight.

RIOTS IN SPAIN.

Madrid, May 5.—Disturbances continue in the provinces, looting and shooting reported from various points. At Barcelona there has been a renewed run on the banks, holders of notes demanding silver.

PORTO RICO IN A TURMOIL.

New York, May 5.—Kingston, Jamaica, special says: Official dispatches passing through here report an uprising in Porto Rico, and that the revolution movement is well under way.

SPAIN'S BIG BATTLESHIPS.

The Fleet That America Will Have to Meet on the High Sea.

NEW YORK, May 5.—The Spanish fleet which was at the Cape Verde Islands consisting of the Vizcaya, Almirante Oquendo, Cristobal Colon and Maria Theresa (all first class cruisers) accompanied by the torpedo boat destroyers Furor, Terror and Pluton, left St. Vincent, Cape Verde Islands, on April 29, destination unknown. The distance from the Cape Verde Islands to the Canary Islands is about 276 miles, and the distance from the Canary Islands to Cadiz about 700 miles, or 1576 miles from the Cape Verde Islands to Cadiz. The Spanish squadron, being five days out from St. Vincent, could have made Cadiz by this time.

PLANNING FOR BATTLE.

Strategists Are Figuring on Destruc- tion of Another Spanish Fleet.

WASHINGTON, May 5.—The naval strategists at Washington are preparing to destroy the Spanish fleet which may be coming across the Atlantic. While the logical base of operations for the enemy is at Porto Rico, there is every reason to believe the Spanish fleet will cruise to the west of Porto Rico and north of Pernambuco. They hope to intercept the Oregon and Marietta and dispose of them before engaging the fleet at Havana. This is the theory upon which the naval strategists are working. This, it is said, accounts for the orders sent to Sampson to sail from Key West.

HOME AGAIN.

Return of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Shellabarger from Europe—Quick Trip.

Hon. and Mrs. D. S. Shellabarger, who have been in Europe several months will arrive in Decatur in a few days. They reached New York Tuesday night on the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, in fact time. The telegram announcing the arrival of the passenger palace says:

NEW YORK, May 5.—The Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse arrived Tuesday night and landed over 1000 passengers at her pier at Hoboken. From noon on Monday to noon on Tuesday she covered 580 knots. Captain Englehart is confident that in the run of 24 hours and 50 minutes he covered 500 knots, which is better by 13 knots than his best previous run to the westward, made November 10, 1897. The new single day record is at the rate of 23.85 knots an hour. The orchestra on the ship played the "Star Spangled Banner" as the vessel reached her pier.

Prince Victor Emmanuel, Count of Turin, nephew of the king of Italy, was among the Kaiser's passengers. He is tall, rather slim, has gray eyes, a bronzed complexion and a pronounced aquiline nose. He vanquished Prince Henry of Orleans last year in a duel, caused by the prince's disparaging remarks about the Italian army in Abyssinia. The Count of Turin is accompanied by Count von Corpenetto. They are on a tour of the west coast and will spend six months in the United States.

Other passengers on the Kaiser were John R. Uxzel, Mrs. Andrew D. White, wife of the American ambassador to Germany; Edgar Dall Oros, secretary of the queen of Roumania; Charles H. Cramp, Lieutenant General Therman of the German army, and Lieutenant von Rebourwitz of the German navy.

In the cargo of the Kaiser was $1,400,000 in gold, consigned to J. & W. Seligman & Co., Kahn, Loeb & Co., and the National City Bank.

Made Official Organ.

O. D. Hill, Wilbur Hoppin and W. N. Andrews arrived home last night from Peoria, where they attended the state convention of the Illinois Typographical Union. It was decided to change the name to the Allied Printing Crafts Union of Illinois. The following officers were elected: President, J. M. Farnham of Ottawa; vice president, William Schenck of Chicago; secretary, John Onyon of Peoria. It was decided to appropriate $12,000 to fight the non-union firm of Donohue & Henneberry of Chicago, and $8000 to fight the Carter Printing company of Peoria.

The Unionist, published in Decatur by W. N. Andrews, was made the official organ of the state union.

Open Meeting.

Tomorrow night the members of the Alpha Beta and Sapphonian literary societies will hold a joint meeting at the high school. A program has been arranged and a small admission fee will be charged and the money will go to the athletic society of the school. The following program will be rendered: Vocal solo, Lillian Fletcher; original story, Edith Callaway; piano solo, Lucille Bonbrake; newspaper, Clyde Bankson; vocal solo, Clara Phillips; original poem, Beattie Dille; piano solo, Irene Wisel; Lucille Abel; Clara Allison; violin solo, Bertha Troutman; dialogue, Wilbur Starling, Harold Ruchl, Irene Sikes and Lulu Kelly.

Was Bound Over.

Yesterday afternoon Paul Huillier was before Justice Shorb to answer the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. It was alleged that in purchasing flour from Perke and Son Huillier had secured credit by making an untrue statement of his property. The justice bound him over in the sum of $800. Huillier was also in the county court yesterday to answer questions to his creditors in regard to his property. He swore that he had forgotten almost everything connected with his business when he was asked questions.

Changes in Business Rooms.

A partition is being put in the business room now occupied by the Conklin wall paper store and Melcher's art store, with a view of arranging the room occupied by the Conklin paper store to be added to the room now occupied by the Nessler Drug and Supply Co. Mr. Nessler's business has been growing steadily and he will take this room to be used for the wholesale department of the store. The change will not be made for several weeks and the Conklin Paper Company will remain at their present quarters during the remainder of the season.

Millions Given Away.

It is certainly gratifying to the public to know of one concern in the land who are not afraid to be generous to the needy and suffering. The proprietors of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, have given away over ten million trial bottles of this great medicine, and have the satisfaction of knowing it has absolutely cured thousands of hopeless cases. Asthma, Bronchitis, Hoarseness and all diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs are surely cured by it. Call on J. E. King and C. F. Shilling, druggists, and get a trial bottle for 12c. Regular size 50c and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed or price refunded.

In Bad Condition.

The country roads are now in a rather bad condition. The recent rains have made them muddy again and traveling over them is difficult. The rains have somewhat delayed the work of the farmers as the ground is too soft to work.

DIED IN IOWA.

A Former Resident of Macon County Gone.

WM. RAINEY, AGED 72 YEARS

Funeral and Burial Will Take Place at Macon on Friday Afternoon—

Widow and Six Children Survive.

This morning John H. Rainey, of the Rainey & Co. laundry, received sad news in a telegram. It was the announcement of the death of his father, William Rainey, who died last night of diabetes at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Emma Ruchl at Storm Lake, Iowa. While the news was not unexpected still the knowledge that death had come was a great shock to the son, who now, like many other sons, knows what it is to lose a father.

William Rainey was 73 years of age. He was a resident of Macon county many years, managing his farm, 10 miles north of Decatur. He was held in the highest esteem by all who knew him. He left Iowa two years ago. The deceased is survived by the widow and six children. They are John H. Rainey of Decatur, Mrs. Martha McGlade of Indianapolis, Kan., Mrs. J. W. Gilne of Walker, Ill., Mrs. Ella Hull of Rosalia, Kan., Mrs. Emma Ruchl of Storm Lake, Iowa, James Rainey of Winfield, Kan.

The remains will be brought to Macon and on Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock the funeral will be held at the Presbyterian church in that city. The burial will be in the Macon cemetery.

Grant at the University.

On Wednesday, April 27, the birthday of General Grant was celebrated at the University of Illinois by the holding of a special convocation. Hon. W. J. Cahoon of Danville, recently appointed a member of the Interstate Commerce Commission, was the orator of the day. Additional interest was given to the occasion by an enthusiastic demonstration in honor of Captain Daniel D. Brush of the United States army, now closing his detail of four years as professor of military science at the state university. As an expression of the high regard in which he is held by faculty and students, he was presented with a handsomely ornamented sash. As he advanced to receive it he was enthusiastically cheered. The scene was interesting, also, as an expression of loyalty to the national army, of which he has been an honorable representative. Commissioner Cahoon's address was exceedingly impressive. His reference to the co-operation of union and confederate veterans in the present crisis was received with special enthusiasm. Everything contributed to make this, perhaps, the most interesting patriotic demonstration in the history of the university.

Epworth League Entertainment.
The Epworth League of Grace Methodist church will give an entertainment Friday evening, May 13. Mervin T. Miller, the celebrated impersonator, of St. Louis, will be the chief attraction. There will also be a musical program in which some of the talent of the city will take part. An admission of ten and 15 cents will be charged and the proceeds will be applied to a fund for educating a girl in India, whom the Epworth League have cared for during the past three years.

Phrenological Society.

Those who are interested in the study of human nature, are requested to meet at the Y. M. C. A. rooms Tuesday evening, May 5. Object is the study of human nature and the promotion and advancement, intellectually, socially and morally. Mr. John Blume, a pupil of Prof. A. Haddock of San Francisco, Cal., who has experience in the study is the promoter. Ladies and gentlemen are invited to be present, at 8 o'clock.

West to Dayton.

Rev. J. A. F. King left yesterday afternoon for Dayton, Ohio, where he will attend a meeting of the general missionary board of the United Brethren church, of which he is a member. The board will discuss matters pertaining to the missionary work of the church.

Trial at Sullivan.

The trial of J. W. Appleton, charged with murder, will begin at Sullivan on May 23. It is the second trial and the case was taken to Sullivan from Douglas county. State's Attorney I. R. Mills of this city will be one of the attorneys for the defense.

Will Meet Saturday.

The members of Post K, the local branch of the Travelers Protective association, will hold a meeting Saturday night at their headquarters in the Powers block. They will elect officers for the ensuing year and so arrange for an entertainment which they will give soon.

The Cozad Recital.

The recital to be given by Miss Lulu Cozad on the 15th promises to be one of the most enjoyable of the many musicales given this season. Miss Irene Armstrong and Mr. George Dunston will sing.

WILL MEET IN JUNE.

Princes of the Orient Vote to Have a Red Letter Close.

As the regular meeting of the Princes of the Orient held last night, considerable business was transacted of much importance and the oriental rules and regulations were expounded with great impressiveness by the grand pasha and a prince who owes allegiance to a council in Terre Haute. Something of a sensation was caused when it was noticed that a weary prince had strangely become oblivious to all proceedings, but a device of detonating power quickly restored him to a state of wakefulness. One prince is under the ban of the frowning ones for wearing next his heart a mysterious picture.

It was voted to close the season of round-ups with a special blow-out on the first Wednesday night in June, when strawberries and cream will be served freely to all the princes, and there will be a smoker and cards at the close of the installations. It is expected that every prince will bring one or more candidates to the front for the June execution.

Decatur at Cleveland.

The Cleveland, Ohio, public library announces a summer school of library science to be held in Cleveland from August 1 to September 10, 1898. The course is planned for the benefit of assistants in public libraries, and for librarians of small libraries, to give them a course of technical library training, accompanied by practice work. Miss Esther Crawford, head cataloguer, Dayton public library, will be principal instructor. She will be assisted by a number of other librarians, among whom will be Miss Allice Tyler, head of catalogue department, and Miss Virginia Odor, reference librarian of the Cleveland public library. Miss Tyler was connected with the Decatur public library for several years. Both women are graduates of the Armour library school of Chicago, and have many friends in this city. Miss Odor was a teacher in the public schools here for a number of years.

Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever, and cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHERRY & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, etc. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

To Springfield Tuesday.

The party of ladies who had planned to visit the soldiers at Springfield tomorrow have postponed their trip until next Tuesday on account of the disagreeable weather. The party is headed by Mrs. Coladay and will include about 40 of the relatives and friends of the Decatur soldiers. They will be given a rate of $1.16 for the round trip by the railroad. Each member of the party will provide herself with dinner for two and the boys will be given a treat which they will have reason to remember for some time.

V. M. C. A. Notes.

The members of the board of directors of the Y. M. C. A. will hold their regular monthly meeting next Tuesday evening at the association rooms. Routine business will be transacted. This evening there will be a meeting at the rooms for the purpose of organizing a class in phrenology of which John Blume will be the leader.

Next Sunday afternoon Rev. J. T. Finley will speak at the men's meeting on the subject of "Hard Times."

Did Not Accept.

The members of the Goodman band have decided not to accept the offer of the 4th regiment of the Ill. N. G. to go to war as the regimental band. The matter was thoroughly considered but satisfactory arrangements could not be made.

In Honor of Mrs. Walker.

Miss McIlhenny gave a reception and dinner in honor of Mrs. Clara Walker at her home on East Eldorado street this afternoon.

A BIG NAVAL BATTLE IN SIGHT

NEW YORK, May 5.--3 p. m.--The Post's special says: Four Spanish warships are reported to be off Oregon. A naval battle is expected any hour.

DYNAMITE FIEND FOUND

His Name is W. Akin, a Thief--News from Camp Tanner.

SPRINGFIELD, May 5.--Detective Officer Jones of Springfield has been assigned by Chief Castles to try to locate the person who placed the gun cotton in the exposition building Sunday. Detective Jones, who has been in camp all morning working on the case, asserts that he is very positive that W. Akin, the man who was arrested in the camp Wednesday morning on a charge of robbing W. T. Harkness, secretary of the Anaconda Mining Company of New York city, is the fiend who placed the explosive. Jones says Akin is a shrewd detective and that he carries various detective badges and papers, and that he made application to General Barkley to be placed on the case, making assurances that he would locate the perpetrators of the job. It is also claimed that Akin wrote mysterious letters and sent them through the mails. Mr. J. H. Stewart, postoffice inspector, is also working on the case. There may be developments. Lieutenant D. J. Baker of the United States army, formerly located at Springfield, who has been detailed as enlisting officer for Illinois, arrived this morning to begin work. Lieutenant Baker was stationed here so long he knows all of the National Guard officers, and his selection by the government is meeting with hearty approval by all. Gov. Tanner telegraphed Secretary of War Alger asking him again to amend the call for troops from Illinois so as to include the engineering corps of 80 men under Captain U. T. Reed of Chicago, the 1st brigade under Lieut. Joseph R. McDew, the 2d brigade under Lieut. Frank H. Hamilton, the city engineer of Springfield, and the 3d brigade under Lieut. John E. Shephardson of Chicago. It is rumored that Gen. J. W. Vance, now in the office of the state superintendent of insurance, Springfield, is to be appointed colonel of the 4th regiment of infantry, to succeed Col. J. W. Washburn, Vandalla, resigned. General Vance was adjutant general of the state from 1884 to 1891, and now has a volunteer regiment organized and officered. General Vance was an officer of the 4th regiment before becoming adjutant general of the state. His old home is at Paris, the 4th regiment headquarters.

Rain has been falling for two days incessantly and has made Camp Tanner a very disagreeable place. The weather is exceedingly cold for this time of the year and the boys have anything but pleasant life. Nearly all are suffering from severe colds but are making no complaint. Otherwise the health of the camp is excellent, there being only six serious cases, mostly pneumonia cases. The ground is muddy and wet. Rubber boots and rubber overcoats, etc., are in great demand. Merchants handling such goods are doing a large business.

ANOTHER SPY IN CUSTODY

Caught at Tampa Under a Car Loaded With Powder.

TAMPA, FLA., May 5.--Wednesday was a day of sensations for Tampa. They began shortly after midnight, and have been developing at short intervals since. In the camp of the artillery at Port Tampa the sentry had just cried out, "13 o'clock and all is well," when Lieutenant Halas, who was on duty as officer of the guard in the camp of the 8d artillery, discovered a man, presumably a Spanish spy under a car of powder which was within the lines, under the protection of the regiment. The man was immediately arrested and refused to give any account of himself. He was taken to the guard tent and kept under a strong guard. In his possession were found augers and other tools. He was seen hanging around the camp during the day, and waited until darkness came to slip through the lines. His case has not yet been called up, but it is possible that he will be tried by a drumhead court martial. Later in the day the correspondent for a New York newspaper taking snap shots of the camp within the lines was arrested. He protested vigorously, but nevertheless was kept in custody until he proved his identity.

MUSTERED IN TO-DAY.

Members of the Fifth Regiment are Made Regular Army Soldiers.

The members of the 5th regiment of the Ill. N. G. are being mustered into the regular army at Camp Tanner at Springfield today. Colonel Culver is the senior colonel and on that account his regiment was the first to be mustered. Company H of this city will be in the second battalion. It requires a little over a day to muster in a regiment. Colonel Culver of the 5th was in the city today on business connected with the electric light company. When seen by a reporter he said that he did not know when the militia would be called upon to move from Springfield and he didn't think that anyone else knew just when they would leave Camp Tanner. In regard to Goodman's band taking the place as regimental band for the 5th, Colonel Culver said that it remained entirely with the bandmen. He stated that the place was open to them and that if the members of the band wanted the place they could have it. Colonel Culver returned to Springfield at 4 o'clock this afternoon to resume his military duties.

Will Celebrate.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Allsup of 113 East Packard street will celebrate the 47th anniversary of their marriage tomorrow. The guests have been invited for dinner at 1 o'clock. Among those who will be present are Mr. and Mrs. James Johnson of Effingham, Mrs. E. C. Miller of Terre Haute, Rev. and Mrs. W. F. Gilmore, Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Eddy.

KIDNEY TROUBLES ENDED.

Death From Kidney Disease a Thing of the Past.

John Morrow Has Produced in Morrow's Kidneys an Infalible Cure for All Disorders of These Organs.

The progress of medical science and its applications have so far advanced during the century, the most eminent specialists are of the opinion that thirty years from now will find no disease incurable. This being so, and we have no reason to dispute it, as all experience and thought demonstrates the feasibility of such progress in medicine, we are verging upon a revelation that will show us, if not really astonished, the true relation of all bodily organisms to each other. All medical discoveries, however, cannot conquer death, but they will give the assurance that, if every one takes advantage of the means to heal diseases, old age will be the only thing that nature can use to remove us from our present existence.

Among those who have made progress in medicine, no one will stand out more prominently than that renowned chemist, John Morrow, of Springfield, Ohio, the discoverer of Morrow's Kidneys, the only remedy that will cure all diseases of the kidneys—recent or long standing, acute or chronic.

Pains in the back or loins, sick headache, uneasiness of the stomach, chilliness, loss of strength and energy, etc., are some of the first symptoms of kidney trouble. Morrow's Kidneys, taken at the very first, will give almost instant relief. If the ailment is allowed to gain ground, of course it will require a longer treatment with Kidneys. Morrow's Kidneys will not work miracles, but they will cure beyond a shadow of doubt all kidney disorders and make the kidneys sound and useful as they were when in their original perfect health.

As long as the world stands and mankind is amenable to nature's laws and suffers from disease—seemingly his birthright—Morrow's Kidneys will hold a pre-eminent place in Materia Medica. Not even Antitoxin, the remarkable cure for diphtheria, has so great a hold upon a grateful public as Morrow's Kidneys.

Morrow's Kidneys are now on sale everywhere at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50. Kidneys are always put up in yellow tablet form; none are genuine otherwise. If you cannot get them of your dealer, will be sent post-paid by the Herb Medicine Co., Springfield, Ohio, upon receipt of price.

A FARMER - WOMAN.

KATE UPSON CLARK.

sum. If I work hard enough and intelligently enough here I can make larger profits every year—and I must make money."

People did not generally understand why she felt obliged to work so hard, for she had kept her own counsel, and the creditors had told nothing. Some thought that she was miserly. She did not care. She kept right on, and she made money. No farmer in the township was more respected than she. Nobody's opinion on the merits of a farm, or on those of a horse or cow or sheep, was taken before hers. She came to prize these little honors. They sweetened many lonely hours for her.

Before Stillman had finished his college course, Frank had run away. He hated farm work, and he did not like, he said, being "bossed by a woman." Aunt Sarah and Nannette were unhappy for a while, but they finally decided that it was just as well.

Years passed, and Sarah died and was gathered to her rest. Three or four of the neighbors sought the hand of Nannette in marriage, but she refused them all. She had given Dan Jennings the fresh young love of her heart, and she did not feel as if she had any left. Her father's debts were all paid, she had come to love her work for its own sake and for the sake of the honor it brought her in the community. She was fifty, a period without poetry for a single woman—too old for romance, too young for the venerable majesty of age. Her brother Stillman had risen to honor and influence. Frank had died a miserable drunkard. His wife had survived him but a few years. They had left two young daughters, whom Nannette had taken for her own. They were sweet girls, and a great comfort to her.

One day she was sitting on the broad piazza of her remodeled farm house. Her face bore little resemblance to that of the girl whom Dan Jennings had loved. It had grown hard and leathery, and the outlines were severe and angular. Her figure was stocky. Her feet were large and spreading, though once they had been high-heeled and small. Her hands were stiffened, and their joints were knobby. The expression of her countenance was high and fine. Beyond that she was only a plain farmer woman.

A carriage stopped in front of the house. Nannette looked up from the book which she was reading. The girls had been off on a picnic, and she had thought that they might be returning, but it was a stranger. He told the driver to go on and return for him in half an hour. She did not recognize him until he grasped her hand. Then the color flamed up over her face.

"Why, Dan!" she exclaimed, forgetting all formality in the rush of memories which the sight called up.

"How do you do, Nan?" he said, as familiarly.

She motioned him to a seat beside her, and they remained for a moment in silence. She noticed that the expression on his face was a sad and troubled one. In spite of his advantages—and he was dressed with all his old-time elegance—he looked years older than she.

"I want to congratulate you first, Nannette," he began, "upon the appointment of your brother Stillman to the vacant judgeship on the supreme bench of the state. I was reading about it on the train as I came up. Stillman has made a fine name for himself."

"Yes," said Nannette, significantly, "it paid to educate him."

He went on to tell her how his wife had died five years before. Then he had failed in business. His children had grown up to be little comfort to him. He was a lonely, unhappy old man.

"YES," SAID NANNETTE, "IT PAID TO EDUCATE HIM."

"But you have been successful, I am told, Nan," he said, looking off across the broad acres spread in front of them, and around upon the substantial and even stately mansion.

"Yet," said Nannette, quietly, "I have accomplished all that I set out to do, and that ought to satisfy one's ambition, I suppose. I have my brother's children to make me happy, and I have the confidence of this little community. I can travel and I can read. Exposure to wind and weather has tanned my face, and hard work has bent my form. No one would believe that I had ever had any pretensions to grace or beauty—but those were never much to me, you know."

He was watching her closely as she spoke. She felt his gaze rest on her feet—her toughened skin—her clumsy figure—and again the hot wrath of the John Fosdick within her burned.

The man came back with the carriage. Dan Jennings explained that he had been passing through on a train some ten miles away, and he had determined to stop and see her, though but for a few moments.

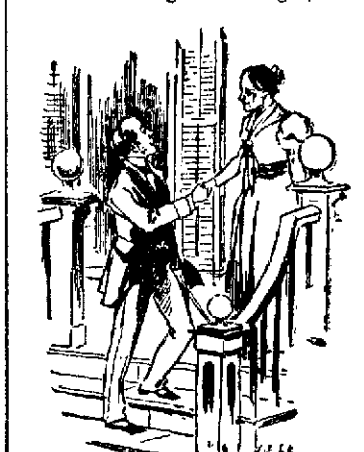

"I can't tell you how often I think of you, Nan," he said, with a dash of sentiment, as they stood on the steps, bidding each other good-by.

"You are very good, Dan," she rejoined with a sudden constriction at her heart, "but it—it was best as it was."

"Ye-es, Nan," he admitted, "but you were the prettiest girl I ever saw, and I want you to know that I appreciated your feeling about your father and all that."

"Oh, I was soon transformed into a farmer-woman, such as I am now," she smiled back to him. "It was for the best. Good-by, Dan."

That night Nannette saw that her two pretty nieces were safe in bed. Then she locked the doors, and stopped for a moment to gaze from her window upon her broad possessions, as they stretched away in the dim moonlight. She felt that she had looked coarse and common to her old lover. Why had he come to see her in his loneliness? He had been thinking of the straight, beautiful girl of thirty years before. He had found her what she had grown to be—a typical farmer-woman. Had he been disappointed? If he had not found her thus, what might he have had in his heart to say to her?

"IT WAS FOR THE BEST, GOOD BY, DAN."

She threw herself down upon the pillow, and, old and staid though she was, she cried far into the night.

Why? Was she sorry that she had not let the farm go, and left her father's debts unpaid? Would she rather, in the illumination of the years that had passed, have married Dan Jennings, with his little inch rule of life, and have lived to be a prop and guide to him, as she felt in her soul that she might have been, and have reared his children for him?

No. She was as happy as mortals usually get to be. Her life had perhaps been no harder for her than other people's lives were for them.

But over the death of a romance long buried, as over the grudge of a sweet child lost years ago, the tears must fall sometimes.

THE END.
